Here is one issue that a Sutro Block Club member posted this past weekend on Nextdoor.com. It has generated 48 comments to date. He has asked that it be addressed at the Zoom meeting this Saturday. (I will forward others as I receive them throughout the week.)

"What in the Samhill is going on over on the perimeter of Leimert Plaza?? I mean ever time I drive past there, there is more and more JUNK. I get there is a homelessness problem, but come on! I always felt it was silly and a waste of time/🚧 to put up that blue fence. I figured the folks "inside" the plaza would end up congregating on the perimeter and boy oh boy have they!!! If the police can't keep the homeless out of that area and in front of the theatre, then maybe the plaza area needs to be repurposed. Where do we complain about this?? This should not be #statusquo"

Thank you,
Diane

Greetings SABC:

I pray each of you and your families continue to be safe and healthy. SABC's regularly scheduled General Body Meetings will continue to take place via ZOOM video conference until it is safe to meet in-person again.

Please join us for our third virtual general body meeting this Saturday, May 30 from 10-11:30AM.

Our Senior Lead Officer, Paul Evleth, and CD10 Deputy, Albert Lord, will be invited, but there will be no speaker or formal agenda.

This month's meeting will be a casual "coffee and conversation" (byo beverage) and, to add a little fun, there will be two trivia games presented -- one will test your knowledge of our beloved Leimert Park community and the other will test your knowledge of popular culture. The winner of each will receive a $25 Target gift card! (One winner per game and the same person may not win both games.)

Two ways to join:

1) VIDEO CONFERENCE (on computer or smartphone)
